

April 17, 2013

The IPSO (Internet Protocol for Smart Objects) Alliance announced today that a panel of industry experts has selected ten semi-finalists for IPSO CHALLENGE 2013. Among the semi-finalists is the team led by Prof. Sotiris Nikolettseas of Research Unit 1.

The ten semi-finalists and the countries they hail from are: Cisco Systems, Japan; Colorado Micro Devices, USA; FAST Laboratory (Tampere University of Technology), Finland; Oval Integration, USA; Purdue University, USA; Redwire Consulting, USA; University of Patras, Greece; University of Tokyo, Japan; viBrain Solutions and University of Murcia, Spain; and Vienna University of Technology, Austria.

For more details, the full press release is here

<http://www.ipso-alliance.org/ipso-alliance-selects-10-semi-finalists-for-ipso-challenge-2013>